The Mission Committee invites you to participate in this year's school supply drive to support low-income students in our community. Local stores have begun their supply sales, so if you are out shopping, please consider picking up a few items to donate. You can drop them at the church office during office hours only (see page 4), or at the food pantry on Wednesdays (between 9am-12pm and 1-3pm) and Sundays (between 1:30 and 4pm). This year, instead of donating the supplies to other nonprofits, we will first offer supplies to those who come to the Wednesday and Sunday food pantry distributions. Supplies will be distributed to our guests beginning mid-August and any remaining items will go to local nonprofit organizations.

BIRTHDAYS

FOOD PANTRY

Pam Presnall

We want to once again thank everyone who is continuing to support the pantry during these uncertain times. We continue to serve 60+ households on Wednesdays and 25-30 on Sundays (which will probably increase when the additional unemployment support ends at the end of the month), as well as individuals who are experiencing homelessness. Your food, grocery bag and financial contributions are greatly appreciated.

In addition to food, we are now distributing toiletries, for which people are very thankful. Should you wish to donate food, toiletries or grocery bags, you can drop them at the church during office hours or during the pantry operating hours.

Food Pantry

Every Week:
Wednesdays: 10am-12pm / 1-3pm
Sundays: 2-4pm

Big THANK YOU to Laura and David Compton (and Geoffrey & Cathleen) for providing us with a ton of customizable shelving, and also a lot of household and hygiene products for distribution to those using our food pantry.

PASTOR'S LETTER Pastor R. Winston Presnall

Dear Steppers,

In the comedy movie, “What About Bob?,” an exchange between therapist and client highlighted baby steps.

Marvin: It means setting small, reasonable goals for yourself. One day at a time, one tiny step at a time: do-able, accomplishable goals.

Marvin: When you leave this office, don't think about everything you have to do to get out of the building, just deal with getting out of the room.

March seems a few long strides ago. The successive months were full of baby steps. The baby steps seemed uphill against the gravity of restrictions and a mysterious, powerful viral foe. We literally dealt with getting out of the room. Office staff protocol, schedules, off-campus, in-home clerical work, redirecting ourselves from one place to another in geography and psychology. “Honey, I'm home!” Who says that now? “We're all home!” We've been banished to home exile by the barbarian virus, a Trojan-Gift-Bug whose forces are legion. The “Gift-Bug” arrives in the familiarity of friend or family unknowingly turned into carrier-foe.

Remember the commercial where the bathroom medicine cabinet is opened by a guest? All the meds fall off the shelves and scatter on the floor. The narrator: “Want to get away?” YES.

Judging by the our social-critter-natures, we raced back to parties, bars and eating indoors. Too quickly. Most churches are negotiating the “return to church” compulsion with carefully, decent and orderly steps. Baby steps. Social distancing requiring a 10 foot radius around a person. In our downstairs sanctuary, that gives us 20 such social distance circles—about 20 to 23 people. Maybe 25. And no singing. Wearing masks. Disinfecting every chair, even those labeled: “Do not sit here!” (Labeled not by any long term congregant who has always sat there!) Cleaning instructions for use of the restroom. Carefully placed hand sanitizing stations. 6 foot reminders of social distancing under foot. No common food tables. No coffee stations. Donuts banished from the kingdom.

We are exiled from face to face, personal worship...right now. Right now, we are learning the baby steps for our return.

Baby steps are good. Encouraging. I watched Hailey, our granddaughter, take a few steps without assistance on a FaceTime call this past Sunday. Hailey amazed herself. Of course, she fell like Peter through the glassy sea after a few baby steps. Plopped right down on her padded, diapered touche. Her parents were surrounding her...all four hands and four arms...to keep her from falling into something hard.

We'll take baby steps to get back to church, together. We want to make sure we don't fall into something hard, deadly! We'll walk in faithful baby steps, trusting that God desires us to take strides without falling into harder times.

Winston

CONGREGATIONAL CARE UPDATES

Tom Godfrey has been diagnosed with an aggressive type of cancer and has begun Chemotherapy. Our prayers are with the Godfrey family as they navigate this difficult time.

Karen Scott has been moved to an ICU/Rehab facility in Santa Ana as more hospital beds are needed for an increasing number of Coronavirus patients. She is making progress but the journey is long. Bruce and the entire Scott family appreciate your continuing prayers. Cards for Karen would very much be appreciated at this time as they can be read to her by nursing staff. Please send to the Scott home and Bruce will take them to the hospital for her:

Karen Scott
2742 N. Hearthside St.
Orange, CA. 92865

Bruce & Karen would like to extend their deepest thanks for all the cards, texts, calls, drop-offs and well-wishes that they have received during this overwhelming and difficult time.

Gail Telkamp continues to make progress in her recovery. She is eating better, sleeping less, and gaining strength.

We continue our prayers for all those who are in need in our church family.

YOUR SUPPORT IS VITAL

Although we are not physically meeting on the church campus right now, we are dependent on your ongoing support for our Worship, Music and Mission programs, as well as for staff working from their own homes. All our expenses are still ongoing: utilities, insurance, and payments to vendors and accounts. We want to maintain as seamless an operation as we possibly can and your support is vital for that to happen. Your pledges can still be mailed to the church office, or you can switch to giving online through our secure portal with Faithstreet. It's easy to set up an account and manage your tithing right from home. From the main homepage at www.firstpresorange.org click the 'Give' link at the top right to get started. Please contact Lynn Winn at the church office if you need help or have any questions: 714 538 2341 / lynn@firstpresorange.org.

HOW DO WE ORGANIZE SUNDAY WORSHIP? James Keniston

Sunday worship is always available for our congregation and visitors. Considering that the church has been in operation since 1874 – at the same location – that equates to approximately 7,614 Sunday Worship services over 146 years. For the staff that work together to ensure that the service happens each week, it is planned like a production, and that’s a good thing, because that mindset and attention to detail helps to ensure that it all runs smoothly. The worship committee of course meet to make major decisions about the content and arrangement of Worship and various elements such as music, communion, décor, assigning and recruiting our liturgists and readers. But week-by-week the process goes something like this:

Monday: Pastor Winston delivers the service outline to James, who reviews and adds music information provided by Caitlin and Grace. Reminders are sent to those who have committed to participate in the service such as our liturgists and children’s messengers. A draft is sent out to Worship staff for any revisions and so that everyone now sees the full content of the service and can begin to prepare accordingly.

Tuesday: The service outline is finalized and sent out by James, with additional items, to all participants in the service including our liturgists/readers so that they can prepare their video segments and transfer to us.

Wednesday: Any last-minute details are discussed at our staff meeting, along with other relevant church business. Caitlin and James prepare certain files that go into the final edit of the Sunday service such as the choir video, sermon quotations and transition slides. These are all placed into shared Dropbox folders that can be jointly accessed wherever we happen to be working that day.

Thursday: Pastor Winston, Caitlin, Grace and Jourdan (our production technician) meet in the Sanctuary to record the various musical and liturgical elements that will be edited together by Jourdan into our final broadcast-ready video.

Thursday/Friday: Jourdan takes all the segments that he has recorded Thursday, as well as items submitted by Caitlin, James and our liturgist participants, and edits together the video. He then uploads to our Facebook page.

Of course there are other more minute details each week that ensure a successful production, and a lot of preparation time by our Worship staff for the actual content, however this is the basic process. It is broadly similar to preparing for Sunday Worship in person, but, like every church, we have had to adapt and our roles have all changed a little bit too. Fortunately we have the technology available in our world that has made this possible as a relatively seamless transition.

If you would like to join our ranks as a liturgist, children’s messenger or announcements reader, and submit your video contributions as part of our regular rotation, please contact james@firstpresorange.org.

HEALTH MINISTRY

August is National Immunization Awareness Month. While we all are hoping that a vaccine for COVID-19 will be here soon, the Center for Disease Control (CDC) reminds us we also need to take the various vaccines that are available to help protect us from serious illnesses. It is important to know which shots you need and when to get them. All adults need a seasonal flu shot every year. Other shots work best when they are given at certain ages. There are schedules for shots for children and adolescents that you can obtain from your doctor. People 60 or older should get a shot to prevent shingles, if they had chickenpox in the past. There is now a better shot to prevent shingles called RZV (recombinant zoster vaccine). It is given in two doses 2–6 months apart. People 65 or older should get two pneumococcal vaccines - one dose of PCV13 (conjugate vaccine) followed by one dose of PPSV23 (polysaccharide vaccine). Adults also need to have a shot for tetanus and diphtheria every ten years.

August News

We made it! The first day of preschool for all of our returning students is August 3rd. We are happy to have three full classrooms with full time students ages 6 weeks-6 years old. OPPS will be operating a lot differently:

- There are three sanitation stations in the preschool that supply the students with hand sanitizer and tissues and supply the teachers with Clorox wipes, Lysol spray, gloves, paper towels and masks.
- Parents drop off the students outside the school and teachers bring the children into the classroom.
- No shoes are allowed in the school.
- Classrooms are filled with half the capacity of students as before.
- Staff is not rotating between classrooms but remaining with the same students throughout the day.
- Temperature checks and screening questions are asked for each child daily at drop-off.
- Lots of cleaning!

But not to worry, there is still a lot of the same happening too! Children are with their peers and loving teachers, learning to share, doing art projects, playing, and of course learning about Jesus!

We are happy to be back up and running and offering care to those in need!

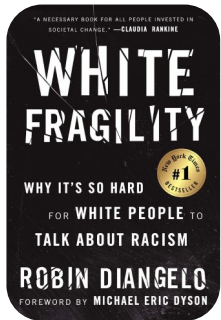

Be sure to follow us on Instagram to see more of what we've been upto: @oppschool.

We have been engaging with our kids during this time with our daily 'Circletime' program via our Instagram account. Parents can log on with their little ones and hear from Ms. Violet - who leads the kids in activities including crafts and treasure hunts.

EDUCATION

WHITE FRAGILITY BY ROBIN DIANGELO

Our class continues for this study exploring the difficult conversation surrounding race. It is important to maintain a small class-size, engage in personal-guided sharing, and commit to the self-discipline of a weekly reading schedule. You are encouraged to journal your thoughts in the process. There are 12 chapters and 12 Sessions. After the class concludes, if you wish to teach a small class of five people, we would be delighted. Those who have signed up for the class have received sign-in credentials. Please note that registration for this session is now closed.

WORD & WINE

Wednesdays • 5:30 pm • Online

Pastor Winston is also offering his weekly Word & Wine class as a Facebook broadcast during this period of isolation. Why not pour yourself a glass and settle in on the sofa?

www.facebook.com/firstpresorange

You do not need to be logged into Facebook to watch as we have a public page - you just need an internet connection! Every week Pastor Winston offers a behind the scenes look at the upcoming lectionary passage that will be used in the sermon. Contact him to join our Word email list: rwinston@firstpresorange.org.

VIRTUAL KID'S COVE

Sundays • 11:30 am • Online

The Kids Cove really misses all of our children! We are offering virtual Sunday School each week right now so you can log your kids on for some fun, games and learning. Contact Violet Fenton to be included on her special email access link to this event: violet@firstpresorange.org.

BOOK CLUB

For August, the Book Club will not have anything specific to read. Please get caught up on some books that you have put aside to read later, and enjoy the summer!

If you need any book recommendations, please call Lynda Stewart at 714 639 5076.

CHURCH CLOSURE UPDATE

The Session are reviewing the situation regarding our closure due to Covid-19 on a monthly basis. The situation currently is that the church will remain closed for in-person services until further notice, with updates to follow. We are appreciative of all the understanding and well-wishes that have been received during these difficult circumstances.

We are monitoring statewide mandates and restrictions carefully and will return to our normal activities as soon as we feel able, in light of the Covid-19 pandemic. In the meantime, the church has a conferencing application, so if you would like to arrange a 'virtual meeting' with each other from your home computers we can help with that and help anyone learn the technology that would like to. Contact james@firstpresorange.org to find out more

Check our Facebook page for updates: <https://www.facebook.com/firstpresorange/>

Church staff are currently working remotely from home and minimizing time spent on the church campus, however, they can still be contacted through the usual channels including our main office phone number: 714 538 2341 during business hours.

The Preschool is also closed and will be re-opening August 3rd, however you can still reach the Preschool office by contacting violet@firstpresorange.org.

WE'RE HERE FOR YOU

Our church operation is hoping to operate as a hub, especially at this time, if there are any needs or errands that our older church members have in light of current guidance for those over the age of 65 (and those with health issues or compromised immunity) to remain at home for a period of time. Pastor Winston, Caitlin Giusta, Ilco Vandercapellen and James Keniston have all offered to make themselves available if anyone needs a prescription collected or an errand run outside the home. Our Deacons may also be able to help. We recommend contacting all four of us by email (see the back page) so that we can be sure and see your message. Alternatively you can contact the main church office at 714 538 2341. Keep up with the latest official sources for news on the current Coronavirus pandemic:
